When Chewy fell into the Poo Pot

PART 1

Bashy spends a lot of time in the Poo Kitchen stirring the poo in a humungous pot to make sure it is the best it can be for its scary journey through the Underbelly.

Some poo needs help because it is full of Sugar Monsters, Junk Punks and other Baddies.

Chewy Bug knows all about poo and helps Bashy. He hands down extra ingredients from the Spice Shelf in the Poo Kitchen.

PART 2

One day Chewy was very happy because he had made a lovely poo painting. Cooly Bug had agreed to hang it in the Arty Farty Studio. Chewy was so excited by this that he skipped between the jars on the shelf and tumbled right over the edge into the Poo Pot.

When Chewy Bug landed head first with a huge plop, he sent bits of poo all over Bashy Bug. They both spent ages washing it off. It had got stuck everywhere, even in their teeth. Both Bashy and Chewy are quite fond of poo but even they thought that was yucky!
